New Direction for Community Foundation

Seven new volunteers join GDCF Board, Executive

(Golden, BC) – The Golden & District Community Foundation (GDCF) welcomed a new Executive on Wednesday.

Lynne Romano will be the new Board Chair for the next two years. Nola Milum, who had served as Board Chair for the past 4 years, stepped right into the Treasurer's role.

Lori Baxendale, who volunteered with the Community Foundation during the "Vital Signs 2014" project, is the new Vice Chair. And Glen Ewan, a former GDCF Chair, offered his services as Secretary.

Other Board members include Flec Demmon, Joy Orr, Brian Spain, and Bryan Stevens.

The new Board will begin their term by working together on a directional plan for the remainder of 2015 and call together the GDCF's Management, Fund Development, Investment and Marketing advisory committees as needed.

If you would like to volunteer or learn more about one of these committees, please contact Lynne Romano at chair@goldencommunityfoundation.ca.
